

Watermelon Eating Contest

Contest Rules and Guidelines

- This contest is open to anyone ages 10-17 who is in good health. Prior to participating in the contest, a parent or legal guardian for a contestant must certify that the contestant is in good health and has medical clearance to participate in the contest and sign a waiver to be provided by the contest organizer the day of the event.
- Each contestant will be given a large wedge of watermelon. After the starting signal, contestants will have five (5) minutes to eat the watermelon down to the rind.
- Hands free eating is required! Contestants must place their hands behind their backs while eating the watermelon.
- Visible signs of sickness will result in disqualification. Further, the contest organizer may remove a contestant from the contest if the contest organizer determines that the contestant's continued participation poses a risk of harm to the contestant or others.
- The contestant that is the first to finish eating the entire portion of watermelon or the contestant with the least amount of watermelon left at the end of the 5-minute time period will be crowned winner.
- In the event of a tie, judges will decide the winner, and their decision will be final.
- The winner of the contest will receive a Farmview Market Gift Card valued at $25.00, a social media feature, and bragging rights.
- Contestants must abide by all contest rules and compete in a safe and reasonable manner.
- Any rules in addition to those listed here will be included in the waiver or announced by the contest organizer the day of the event.
- Any contestant who breaks any of the contest rules will be disqualified.
